China's CALB to invest $2 billion in EV battery factory in Portugal LISBON, Feb 21 (Reuters) - China's CALB, one of the world's largest battery makers for electric vehicles, said on Friday it would invest 2 billion euros ($2.09 billion) in a gigafactory in Portugal that is expected to start.

Galp has kicked off construction on five new battery energy storage system (BESS) projects in Spain and Portugal, marking a major step in its clean energy strategy. According to the company, the installations will total 74MW/147MWh and connect directly to solar power plants. Four of the projects.

The factory to be built in Sines, about 100 km (62 miles) south of Lisbon, will produce lithium batteries. CALB said its first factory in Europe would create 1,800 direct jobs, expecting it to represent more than 4% of Portugal's GDP when the plant hits full capacity. China's CALB, one of the.
